Say Pig Woman Is Not Improved

At the Jersey City Hospital early today it was reported that the condition of Mrs. Jane Gibson, the "pig woman," is unchanged. No hope is held out for her recovery.

Mrs. Gibson's room is filled with flowers. Charlotte Mills, who is ill in a Somerville hotel following her breakdown, sends a daily gift to the sick woman.

NAB MUSSOLINI PLOTTERS

MADRID, Dec. 3 (By U. P.)—Barcelona police today brought two men here alleged to have been connected with a plot to assassinate Premier Primo de Rivera of Spain and Premier Mussolini of Italy.

Your Birthday

DECEMBER 3

ARTHUR MIDDLETON

Arthur Middleton, famous American baritone, was born on November 28, and is therefore under the rule of the fiery Sagittarius and the good planet Jupiter. Mr. Middleton's horoscope is a very lucky one. Not only was Jupiter, the star that rules his destiny, in trine with the Sun, but beautiful Venus, goddess of music, was in trine with the Moon, showing that success would come to him through his unusual gifts with comparatively little effort on his part. Like Mr. Althouse, with whom he has made so many successful tours to far distant lands, he was bound to travel, for both Aries, in which Jupiter was placed at his birth, and Sagittarius are enthusiastic travelers. The dramatic and mysterious Neptune was in the singing sign emotional Taurus, and was in trine or luck aspect to Venus. This showed that Mr. Middleton would have no difficulty in expressing his deeply musical nature, for both Venus and Neptune are musical, and the trine aspect brings things easily to pass.

KINSHIP WITH NATURE and LOVE AND SYMPATHY FOR ALL LIVING CREATURES are characteristics of the good type Sagittarian. Guided by their "hunches" or intuitions, these people seldom make a mistake in judgment, but they should rely on their own judgment and not take the advice of others.

To those born on December 3 the stars promise a remarkable year, during which much new knowledge and success will come to them. Those of an inventive turn of mind will find themselves filled with ideas and with the necessary enthusiasm to put same to practical use. They should make the most of the opportunities which will present themselves

Million Spurred By Chaplin's Wife

sion when it was recalled the comedian recently made her a present of an expensive diamond bracelet.

In refuting his wife's charges of neglect and ill treatment Chaplin gave details of a party in his home early Tuesday morning which, he claims, was of such a nature he was forced to halt it.

"While I was asleep," he said, "some men and women came in about 2 a. m. and aroused the entire neighborhood, including the nurse and baby. They had been drinking."

"When I heard the piano, organ and victrola all going at once, I got out of bed, called my wife upstairs and told her to get rid of these people. She did, and the next day left me."

Disclaims Responsibility

Chaplin waited until last night for her to return and on her failure to do so sent the following notice to newspapers:—

"My wife, Lita Grey Chaplin, having left my bed and board, I will no longer be responsible for any debts contracted by her."

"Signed by Charles Spencer Chaplin."

Informed of her husband's action, Lita reiterated that under no circumstances would she go back.

"I could no longer stand Charles' attitude toward me and the babies," she declared. "I have come to my grandmother's, where I can find peace."

"I have given up trying to reconcile his treatment to that natural to a husband and father. I was in constant fear of him. No; I have no intention of returning to him at this time. My hopes for a happy home have been shattered, and this is the end of what might have been a happy dream. I can say no more now."

CHAPLIN LAWYERS MEET TO DISCUSS SETTLEMENT

HOLLYWOOD, CAL., Dec. 3 (By U. P.)—A settlement out of court appeared likely today as a solution to the marital squabble between Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Chaplin. Attorneys for the couple met to discuss "terms," the single obstacle in the way of a peaceful separation.

Mrs. Chaplin, who has threatened to sue for divorce, expects at least $1,000,000 to refrain from filing action and naming a correspondent.

"There will be no reconciliation," said George Beebe, attorney for the wife. "We demand a settlement ample to care for Mrs. Chaplin and the children. Whether Mr. Chaplin is willing to do this I do not know. If not, we are prepared to take legal action."

'Peaches' Favored In Alimony Ruling

Supreme Court Justice Morschauer in White Plains today ruled that Edward W. Browning's payment of $300 a week alimony to his wife Mrs. Frances (Peaches) Heenan Browning, shall date from November 11.

Browning sought to have it start from November 22, the day the alimony award was made.

Browning is suing his wife for separation, and Mrs. Browning has instituted counter-action for separation.
